THE GUEST OF HONOR.

Judge Parker Dined by New York City's Bench and Bar.

New York, Dec. 22.—Alton Brooks Parker, formerly chief justice of the court of appeals, and Democratic candidate for the presidency in the last election, was the guest of honor last night at a dinner given at the Waldorf-Astoria by the bench and bar of the city of New York. Republicans and Democrats alike were present to honor the justice's return to the practice of law.

Justice Morgan J. O'Brien of the appellate division of the supreme court was the presiding officer. The speakers included former Gov. Frank S. Black, former Secretary of War Elihu Root, William B. Hornblower and Judge Parker.

MARSHFIELD.

Nellie, the little daughter of J. Berton Pike, is ill with bronchial trouble.

The Unwin children are gaining, the younger one being able to be around the house.

Remember the Christmas trees and exercises at both churches Friday evening.

Frank Borce, who has been in very poor health for about a year, was taken ill with pneumonia about two weeks ago, and died Tuesday, the 20th. Funeral Thursday, at 10 o'clock. Burial at Walden.

Mrs. Oscar Morrell is improving slowly. There are hopes entertained of her partial recovery from the strokes of paralysis she sustained several weeks ago.

Mrs. Ruth Cameron was taken suddenly ill last week Friday afternoon. Her son, B. L. Cameron, was hastily summoned, fears of her never rallying being entertained, but she overcame the trouble, which proved to be a combination of heart trouble and asthma.

Mrs. Cora Glidden of Montpelier and son, Perley Glidden of Washington, will be guests in the home of J. Berton Pike on Friday and Saturday.

Mrs. Elmer Powers has appendicitis. She is as comfortable as possible, but will undoubtedly have to undergo an operation. Dr. H. S. Carver is attending her.

Mrs. Nellie Haskins and Clyde of Barre visited at Frank Townsend's last Sunday.

Mrs. Lucinda Northrop went to Pencham last Wednesday to remain over Christmas time.
